Sourcing policies/practices of MNCs and Implications on Food Waste Management

Date: 21 November 2019
Time: 16:30–18:00 PM hrs
Venue: Eros Hotel, New Delhi

Session Objectives
- Understand the sustainable initiatives that are applied along the value chain by value chain actors to address post-harvest waste
- To better understand the motivations and drivers behind practices of MNCs with regard to addressing food waste in the value chain
- To get an understanding of the challenges that are faced within the ecosystem to address food waste
- To better understand the challenges faced by MNCs and their respective suppliers to ensure contribution to SDGs and the policy and regulatory support required

Time Agenda Items
16:30-16:35 Welcome
16:35-16:45 Opening Remarks
16:45-17:40 Discussion on Sourcing policies/practices of MNCs and Implications in Food Waste Management
17:40-17:55 Panelists
  Mr. Atin Kumar Tyagi
  Project Lead - Corporate Sustainability, Climate Change and Water Management Systems, Jain Irrigation Systems Limited
  Ms. Minakshi Dey
  India - Lead Corporate Responsibility, Sodexo (Tentative)
  Ms. Sonakshi Pande
  Market Research Analyst and sustainability Project Lead - Rice, Olam (Tentative)
  Dr. Sudhanshu
  Secretary, APEDA (Tentative)
  Mr. Pawan Kumar Agarwal
  CEO, FSSAI (Tentative)
  Ms. Aruna Rangachar Pohl
  Chairperson, Advisory Committee at India Foundation for Humanistic Development
Moderator
Dr. Arpita Mukherjee
Professor, Indian Council for Research on International Relations
17:55-18:00 Closing Remarks & Vote of Thanks
CRB